TEN COMBOS. ZERO EXCUSES.

Every one of these sounds wrong and tastes right. Each page gives you the hook, why it works, the ingredients, the method and its flavour stats. Make one tonight.

The weird score is how much pushback you'll get. Ones and twos are crowd-pleasers. Fives are the ones half your friends refuse to try and then ask for the recipe. The numbers are the recipe's place in the full book of fifty.

Allergens and safety

Each recipe lists what it contains from the big eight (peanuts, tree nuts, dairy, eggs, wheat/gluten, soy, fish/shellfish, sesame), with peanuts in red. "Check labels" names the ingredients that change by brand. It's a guide, not a guarantee: read packaging and skip anything that isn't safe for you. Page 3 covers kitchen safety, and recipes that need extra care carry an orange safety note.

Make the weird thing.

SAFETY FIRST. CHAOS SECOND.

Weird is the goal. Getting hurt isn't. Read this once; any recipe that needs extra care also carries an orange safety note.

Hot oil

Pat food dry, lower it in away from you and never leave the pan. Grease fire: heat off, lid on. Never water.

Molten sugar

Caramel runs near 170°C/340°F and sticks to skin. Deep pan, long sleeves, cream in slowly at arm's length. No finger-tasting.

Cook it through

Chicken 74°C/165°F. Beef and pork mince 71°C/160°F. Reheat leftovers to 74°C/165°F. A cheap probe thermometer ends the guessing.

Raw meat

Use its own board. Don't rinse raw chicken; it splashes germs around. Wash your hands after, and bin brines and marinades that touched raw meat.

Raw and runny eggs

Ramen carbonara, the jammy egg and the mousse use eggs that aren't fully cooked. Use pasteurised eggs for anyone pregnant, very young, older or immunocompromised.

Rice and leftovers

Cool cooked rice fast, refrigerate it within an hour, eat it within a day. Everything else: fridge within 2 hours (1 on hot days), at 4°C/40°F or colder.

Knives and chilies

Claw grip, sharp knife, board on a damp towel so it can't slide. Wash your hands after chilies and keep them away from your eyes.

Allergies

Every recipe lists its allergens, peanuts in red. Ask guests first. Clean knives, boards and jars between foods: one peanut-butter knife in the jam is enough.

Kids and pregnancy

No honey for babies under 1. Popcorn, nuts and dates are choking risks for under-5s. Espresso, magnesium and protein powder are for adults.

Film safely

Tripod over hot pans, not your hand. Keep cables away from the hob and sink. Heat off before you check footage. No shot is worth a burn.

This book is general cooking guidance, not medical or dietary advice. Follow your appliance instructions and local food-safety advice, and use your own judgment for the people you're feeding.

RECIPE 01 OF 50 · SWEET × SALTY

HOT HONEY PICKLE CHIPS

WEIRD SCORE  20 MIN SERVES 2

THE HOOK

Fried pickles were already elite. Then I put hot honey on them.

Why it works. Vinegar + salt + sugar + chili is the exact profile of a great wing sauce. The pickle just brings its own acid.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 jar dill pickle chips, drained and patted very dry
- 1/2 cup flour
- 1 egg, beaten
- 1 cup panko
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- Neutral oil or an air fryer
- 3 tbsp honey
- 1 tsp chili flakes or 1 tbsp hot sauce
- Ranch, for dipping

METHOD

- 1 Dry the pickles hard with paper towel; wet pickles make soggy crumbs.
- 2 Dredge: flour, then egg, then panko mixed with garlic powder.
- 3 Air-fry 8 minutes at 200°C/400°F, flipping once, or shallow-fry 2 minutes a side until golden.
- 4 Warm the honey with the chili for 30 seconds in the microwave.
- 5 Drizzle the hot honey over the hot pickles. Serve with ranch.

Tip. Sweet bread-and-butter pickles work too, but go lighter on the honey.

CONTAINS

dairy

eggs

wheat/gluten

---

Check labels: ranch

⚠ SAFETY

Hot oil spits. Pat the pickles bone-dry, lower them in away from you and never leave the pan. Microwaved honey gets very hot.

PEANUT BUTTER PICKLE CHIP SANDWICH

WEIRD SCORE ●●●●● 5 MIN SERVES 1

THE HOOK

This sandwich has been going viral since the 1940s and nobody believes it until they try it.

Why it works. Peanut butter is fat and salt with a little sweetness. Pickles are acid and crunch. It's the same logic as a PB&J, with the jam's sugar swapped for vinegar.

INGREDIENTS

2 slices soft white or brioche bread

2 tbsp crunchy peanut butter

6–8 dill pickle slices, patted dry

A handful of salted potato chips

Optional: a drizzle of honey or a few drops of hot sauce

METHOD

- 1 Spread peanut butter edge to edge on both slices. Both. This is non-negotiable.
- 2 Lay the pickle slices on one side in a single layer.
- 3 Crush a handful of potato chips on top of the pickles.
- 4 Close, press gently, cut diagonally.

Tip. Toast the bread lightly if you want it less soft.

CONTAINS

⚠ SAFETY

CHILI CRISP VANILLA ICE CREAM

WEIRD SCORE ●●●●● 2 MIN SERVES 1

THE HOOK

The condiment that's on my eggs is now on my dessert and I'm not going back.

Why it works. Chili crisp is oil, crunch, garlic, a little sugar and heat. Vanilla ice cream is cold fat and sugar. Fat loves fat; cold calms the heat; crunch finishes it.

INGREDIENTS

2 scoops vanilla ice cream

1–2 tsp chili crisp (the crunchy bits, not just the oil)

Flaky salt

Optional: crushed peanuts

METHOD

- 1 Scoop the ice cream.
- 2 Spoon chili crisp over it, making sure you get the crispy bits.
- 3 Salt. Peanuts if you have them. Eat before it melts.

CONTAINS

peanuts dairy soy

Check labels: chili crisp, ice cream

⚠ SAFETY

Many chili crisps contain soy, and some contain peanuts or sesame. Read the jar before serving guests.

BALSAMIC BLACK PEPPER STRAWBERRIES WITH MASCARPONE

WEIRD SCORE ●●●●● 10 MIN SERVES 2

THE HOOK

Vinegar and black pepper on strawberries is a 400-year-old Italian trick and it still shocks people.

Why it works. Balsamic adds acid and depth that makes strawberries taste riper; black pepper has a floral heat that reads as spice, not pain; mascarpone is the fat that pulls it together.

INGREDIENTS

250 g strawberries, halved

1 tbsp good balsamic vinegar

1 tsp sugar

Freshly cracked black pepper

100 g mascarpone

1 tsp honey

METHOD

- 1 Toss strawberries with balsamic and sugar. Leave 10 minutes.
- 2 Mix mascarpone with honey.
- 3 Spoon mascarpone onto plates, pile strawberries and their juice on top, crack black pepper over everything.

THE VIRAL SMASHED CUCUMBER SALAD

WEIRD SCORE      10 MIN SERVES 2

THE HOOK

The cucumber salad that got millions of people to buy a mandoline.

Why it works. Smashing bruises the cucumber so it drinks the dressing: rice vinegar for acid, sesame oil for fat, garlic and chili for aroma. Cold, crunchy, sour, savory.

INGREDIENTS

2 cucumbers

1 tsp salt

1 tbsp rice vinegar

1 tbsp soy sauce

1 tsp sesame oil

1 tsp sugar

1 clove garlic, grated

1 tsp chili crisp

Sesame seeds

METHOD

- 1 Smash the cucumbers with the flat of a knife, then chop into chunks.
- 2 Salt them, 5 minutes, pour off the water.
- 3 Mix the dressing; toss through the cucumber.
- 4 Chili crisp and sesame on top. Eat cold.

RAMEN CARBONARA

THE HOOK

Instant ramen and a carbonara had a baby. It costs about a dollar.

Why it works. Egg yolk and cheese emulsify with the starchy ramen water into a sauce; the ramen seasoning is already salty umami.

INGREDIENTS

1 pack instant ramen

1 egg yolk + 1 whole egg

30 g parmesan, grated

2 rashers bacon or pancetta, chopped

Black pepper, lots

METHOD

- 1 Fry the bacon until crisp. Off the heat.
- 2 Cook the noodles in just enough water to cover; save 3 tbsp of the water and drain.
- 3 Whisk eggs, parmesan, half the seasoning packet and pepper.
- 4 Add the hot noodles to the bacon pan (heat off), pour in the egg mix and the saved water, toss fast until glossy. More parmesan and pepper.

CONTAINS

SNICKERS DATES

WEIRD SCORE ●●●●● 20 MIN SERVES 6

THE HOOK

A date, peanut butter, chocolate and salt. It tastes like a Snickers and takes 20 minutes.

150 g dark chocolate

Flaky salt

METHOD

- 1 Slit the dates, pull the stones out.

1/2 cucumber, sliced

6 cherry tomatoes, halved

Olive oil

Optional: smoked salmon, avocado

SLEEPY GIRL MOCKTAIL

WEIRD SCORE ●●●●● 3 MIN SERVES 1

THE HOOK

Tart cherry juice, magnesium and sparkling water. The bedtime drink TikTok made famous.

Why it works. Tart cherry is sour and a little bitter; magnesium powder is fizzy and faintly sweet; soda makes it feel like a cocktail. Treat it as a nice drink, not medicine.

INGREDIENTS

- 1/2 cup tart cherry juice
- 1 tsp magnesium powder (the drink kind)
- Sparkling water
- Ice, a lime wedge

METHOD

- 1 Ice in a glass.
- 2 Cherry juice, stir in the magnesium powder.
- 3 Top with sparkling water. Lime.

Tip. Check the magnesium label for serving size; the drink works just as well without it.

CONTAINS

THE HOOK

Optional: toasted sesame seeds or crushed rice crackers

METHOD

- 1 Scoop the ice cream.
